The committee includes the following 11 persons: Chairman Lin P'ing (22) Deputy Chairmen Li Chieh-chih (23) and Ch'en Hsin-ts'ai (24); and Committeemen Hsiao Hsiang-jung (25) Li Min-hsia (26); Chang Lu-ta'un (27); Huang Hui-chai (28) Hsiao Chih-hsien (29); Tan Chih-hui (30); Li Chin-chieh (31); Hsieh Ch'uang (32).

The primary aims of the rehabilitation committee will be:

1. Investigate deaths and casualties among the seamen, boatmen, fishermen, and civilian workers during the fighting and the losses and damages to boats; conduct welfare and pacification activities, pay compensation, and reward those who were meritorious in battle.

2. Mobilize and organize all-circles "comfort" corps to go to Nan-lu, Yueh-chung, and Hainan, to comfort the front-line soldiers.

3. Return requisitioned boats and property.

4. Help the seamen, boatmen, and fishermen of all areas who participated in the battle to return to their occupations; organize mutual assistance in production, to overcome the present difficulties.

The Nan-lu and Yueh-chung special administration offices, and the Hainan ch'u, are organizing branch committees from delegates of the respective special administration offices and rear area service units which participated in this campaign.
